RE: Local Church Seeks Musicians

Date: October 30, 2017

We are sending this memo and flier (please post where it is appropriate) to a network of musical departments, asking for help in identifying possible candidates to work within and/or coordinate our church music programs.

Our current Music Director of almost six years will be leaving us at year's end; and we are beginning to explore the possibilities of where God may be guiding us. We are willing to explore and try new things, though we hope to expand our repertoire more than completely transform our style of music in worship. We realize that we are a fairly small church (worshipping on average around 60) with a limited budget who worships an all-powerful, unlimited God, thus we are hopeful and excited to begin our search.

Music is one of the most important parts of a congregation's life. Through music, a congregation worships together, teaches its children, expresses its common joys and sorrows, and celebrates and proclaims the work of God-in-Christ.

In light of the important role music plays in the church, we are seeking one or more persons with musical gifts and leadership experience who would be able to plan hymns, anthems and offertories with the pastor, and work with a variety of small groups--SAB Chancel Choir, youth singers, young children, bell choir, and a few members who play instruments (guitar, piano, organ, trombone and flute).

If someone comes to mind, whether it be a person who might grace us with his or her own musical offering on a Sunday morning, someone who might be willing to work more consistently developing one of our own church groups, or even someone who might want to come develop and coordinate our entire music program, please help us to connect with one another.

Our church website is <https://willowcreekpc.org>, should anyone want to do a little research.

Our pastor can be reached at willowcreekpc@gmail.com.

Thank you for your time and help!
