IF I CALL TO WORSHIP FROM PSALM 55

LON CLARK

As for me, I call to God, and the Lord saves me.

Evening, morning and noon I cry out, and God hears my voice.

God rescues me unharmed from the battle waged against me, even though many oppose me.

God is enthroned from of old and does not change.

God will hear and humble those who have no fear of God.

Cast your cares on the Lord, the Lord will sustain you;

God will never let the righteous be shaken. As for me, I trust in you, Almighty God.

Come, let us worship God!

INVITATION TO CONFESSION & PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of all, sometimes we are afraid of the power of faith. Forgive us for being afraid. Sometimes we doubt that you could really use us to change the world. Forgive us for our doubt. Give us the courage and faith to see where healing and grace are needed. Give us the courage and faith to pray boldly for unexpected and irrational things. Forgive us for settling for anything less than what you have created us for and called us to. Forgive us for not trusting that you will provide the love, grace and power needed in every circumstance.

A PERIOD OF SILENT CONFESSION

ASSURANCE OF PARDON FROM I JOHN 1

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, our just and faithful God will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven! Thanks be to God!

I GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

MOMENT OF SILENT REFLECTION

I AFFIRMATION OF FAITH - AN EXCERPT FROM THE CONFESSION OF BELHAR

We believe in the triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who gathers, protects and cares for the church through Word and Spirit. This, God has done since the beginning of the world and will do to the end.

We believe in one holy, universal Christian church, the communion of saints called from the entire human family.

We believe that Christ's work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another;

that unity is, therefore, both a gift and an obligation for the church of Jesus Christ; that through the working of God's Spirit it is a binding force, yet simultaneously a reality which must be earnestly pursued and sought: one which the people of God must continually be built up to attain.

that this unity of the people of God must be manifested and be active in a variety of ways: in that we love one another; that we experience, practice and pursue community with one another; that we are obligated to give ourselves willingly and joyfully to be of benefit and blessing to one another; that we share one faith, have one calling, are of one soul and one mind; have one God and Father, are filled with one Spirit, are baptized with one baptism, eat of one bread and drink of one cup, confess one name, are obedient to one Lord, work for one cause, and share one hope; together come to know the height and the breadth and the depth of the love of Christ; together are built up to the stature of Christ, to the new humanity; together know and bear one another's burdens, thereby fulfilling the law of Christ that we need one another and upbuild one another, admonishing and comforting one another; that we suffer with one another for the sake of righteousness; pray together; together serve God in this world; and together fight against all which may threaten or hinder this unity.

Jesus is Lord. To the one and only God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be the honor and the glory for ever and ever.

The Confession of Belhar has its roots in the struggle against apartheid in South Africa. It was first drafted in 1982 by the Dutch Reformed Mission Church as a protest against a heretical theological stance that used the Bible and the Confessions to justify harsh and unjust systems. The PCUSA approved Belhar as part of our Book of Confessions at the 222nd General Assembly (2016).
